

COVID-19 guidance for Community Interest Companies

Published by the Office of the Regulator of Community Interest Companies on 30 March 2020. The Regulator recognises that some CICs will have a period of time where they may be unable to provide normal services and meet the community benefit that they were set up to serve. This can be reported in the Annual CIC report, filed with CIC Accounts, to explain any change in the delivery of the community interest company

<https://www.gov.uk/government/news/coronavirus-covid-19-guidance-for-community-interest-companies-cics>