

Charity Commission guidance on filing charity annual returns

Published by the Charity Commission on 16 March 2020. Charities must ring the Charity Commission if they wish to request a filing deadline extension

Updated (date unknown) the guidance has been updated to say charities that are due to submit an Annual Return imminently, but feel unable to do so, can email the Commission to request a filing extension. Charities should include the charity name and charity registration number in the email

<https://www.gov.uk/government/news/filing-charity-annual-returns-during-the-coronavirus-pandemic>