

Company filings, AGMs and other general meetings

Published by the Department for Business Energy and Industrial Strategy on 17 April 2020.

The government is to bring forward legislation that will: permit companies to override their articles of association for a short period in order to hold closed meetings, including AGMs, by phone or by an equivalent means of communication. In addition companies will be able to extend the period within which an AGM must be held

<https://www.frc.org.uk/getattachment/51dec8c7-7820-402b-b3a1-222db7220157/AGM-QA-Final-Version-Apr-2020.pdf>