

Funding for charities dealing with domestic abuse

Published by the Ministry of Housing, Communities & Local Government on 7 May 2020. The government has created a £10 million fund open to domestic abuse charities in England, including refuges. The funding will support charities who provide domestic abuse safe accommodation services or who offer help to victims and their children

<https://www.gov.uk/government/news/domestic-abuse-charities-can-apply-for-vital-funds>